Success at IDET international arms fair in Czech Republic

GEVORKYAN, a.s. presented innovative solutions for the civil arms, aviation industry and drones at the trade fair, attracting the attention of experts and opening a dialogue with new potential partners.

Military activity has now moved into the air – drones are a key element of modern warfare, as is evident in all ongoing conflicts. Across Europe, there has been an extreme increase in the production of drones of all kinds. Therefore, GEVORKYAN, a.s. has taken another strategic step and during the trade fair, agreed to cooperate on development projects with experts in anti-drone systems designed to protect human lives.

The participation of GEVORKYAN, a.s. was part of the official Slovak exhibition, which was sponsored by the Government of the Slovak Republic, for which the company is very grateful.
